

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Awo Taan Healing Lodge Society ("Nurturing Families Living in Peace")

Relief Crisis Counselor

Since 1992, the Awo Taan Healing Lodge Society has been providing a cultural wholistic and spiritual based service which prefers a strengths-focused approach to working with families and the community. The model is consistent with traditional Aboriginal healing. Awo Taan Healing Lodge Relief Crisis Counselors work in a high energy, client focused organization which includes shift work and flexible hours.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Responsible for intakes of new residents
- To provide immediate response to crisis calls and provide crisis intervention
- Provide counselling services to residents of the shelter
- Assist other crisis counsellors, volunteers and practicum students when necessary.
- Relief Crisis Counsellors are on call and must be willing to work day, evening or midnight shifts.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Degree or diploma in Social Work or equivalencies
- Ability to do shift work and be on call
- Understanding and knowledge of Aboriginal culture
- Knowledge of family violence and its effects
- Child Welfare and Criminal check

Interested candidates should forward resumes with cover letter to:

c/o: Selection Committee
Awo Taan Native Women's Shelter
P.O. Box 6084, Station A
Calgary, Alberta T2H 2L3
Email: awotaan@awotaan.org
Fax: (403) 531-1977

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY ONGOING